

FREE Hearing & Vision Screening for your Pre-School and School-Age Child

Hearing or vision problems can interfere with your child's development.

Early identification will help your child develop, grow and learn.

Michigan law requires hearing and vision screening prior to starting kindergarten.

It's never too early to get your child tested.

Free hearing and vision screenings for all pre-school children ages three to five are available at your local health department.

www.mihearingvision.com